ACRA assigns A- to Eurasian Development Bank, outlook Stable, under the international scale, AAA(RU), outlook Stable, under the national scale for the Russian Federation, affirms AAA(RU) to bond issues (RU000A0ZZRR6), (RU000A1004X4), (RU000A100JC1) and assigns AAA(RU) to bond issue (RU000A100US4)

The credit rating assigned to Eurasian Development Bank (hereinafter, EDB) is based on high member-state support, high capital adequacy, a satisfactory risk profile, and adequate liquidity and funding.

EDB is a supranational development institution established to promote the economic growth, expansion of trade, and economic relations between the member states of the Eurasian Economic Union (hereinafter, the EAEU). The member states of EDB are the Russian Federation (65.97%), the Republic of Kazakhstan (32.99%), the Republic of Belarus (0.99%), the Republic of Tajikistan (0.03%), the Republic of Armenia (0.01%), and the Kyrgyz Republic (0.01%).

ACRA assesses member-state support at A-. This assessment is based on the highest achievable level of support from key member states, i.e., A- from the Russian Federation and BBB+ from the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The level of support from the Russian Federation is determined by the combination of EDB’s high systemic importance for the Russian economy and the credit rating of the Russian Federation at A-, outlook Stable.

The level of support from the Republic of Kazakhstan is determined by the combination of EDB’s high systemic importance for the Kazakh economy and the credit rating of the Republic of Kazakhstan at BBB+, outlook Stable.

The quality of management, strategy, and transparency of activities is satisfactory. EDB’s organizational structure and corporate governance are in line with the scope of its activities. EDB’s strategy for 2018-2022 provides for active expansion in investment activities, particularly in the energy sector. In addition, EDB intends to develop settlement operations (letters of credit and clearing services) between EAEU member states, as well as issue customs guarantees and guarantees for the fulfillment of state orders. This will strengthen EDB’s position as a development institution for the Eurasian region.

However, ACRA believes this assessment is limited by the likelihood of interference in EDB’s activities by member states pressured by sanctions.

EDB’s capital adequacy position is strong. EDB has a significant supply of capital, which provides a comfortable absorption buffer against losses. As of July 1, 2019, the adequacy of EDB’s paid-in capital, calculated according to ACRA’s methodology, amounted to 36.3%. ACRA notes that on top of the paid-in capital (USD 1.5 bln), EDB has a substantial supply of callable capital (USD 5.5 bln), which exceeds all assets and off-balance sheet liabilities.

ACRA assesses EDB’s risk profile as satisfactory. The risk profile is characterized primarily by the loan profile’s high concentration on the ten largest credit risks, which represent 94.8% of paid-in capital. In addition, the risk profile exhibits relatively high country diversification, with the Russian Federation accounting for 36.3% of financial assets, the Republic of Kazakhstan accounting for 28.2%, and other countries accounting for the remaining shares, including countries outside the EAEU. ACRA notes the high quality of EDB’s financial assets; as of July 1, 2019, the share of overdue (NPL90+) and potentially problem debt amounted to only 4.4%.
ACRA assigns A- to Eurasian Development Bank, outlook Stable, under the international scale, AAA(RU), outlook Stable, under the national scale for the Russian Federation, affirms AAA(RU) to bond issues (RU000A0ZZRR6), (RU000A1004X4), (RU000A100JC1) and assigns AAA(RU) to bond issue (RU000A100US4)

The securities portfolio, which accounts for about 36.5% of total assets as of July 1, 2019, is formed primarily by highly reliable debt securities, including bonds from majority member states.

ACRA assesses the quality of EDB's risk management as satisfactory due to its comprehensive risk management policy. However, ACRA believes that this sub-factor is limited due to the low level of disclosure of risk management principles and the results of work in this area.

EDB's liquidity and funding position is adequate. EDB is characterized by its strong liquidity position as it maintains a substantial share of highly liquid assets on its balance, the lowest share of which over the last 36 months was 30.5% of total assets. This, along with diversified funding in terms of urgency, provides a comfortable cushion of liquidity in the short- and medium-terms.

EDB's liabilities are moderately diversified in terms of funding sources (Herfindahl-Hirschman index at 39%). ACRA notes that EDB is reducing its dependence on bank loans in favor of debt securities; as of July 1, 2019, bank loans amount to about 6% of total liabilities, while debt securities amount to just over 44%.

EDB’s credit rating is AAA(RU), outlook Stable, under the national scale for the Russian Federation as per the Methodology for Mapping Credit Ratings Assigned on ACRA’s International Scale to Credit Ratings Assigned on ACRA’s National Scale for the Russian Federation.

Key assumptions

- Maintaining member-state structure and creditworthiness, as well as EDB's systemic importance;
- Maintaining the current strategy and business model within the 12 to 18-month horizon;
- Maintaining paid-in capital levels within the 12 to 18-month horizon;
- Maintaining a high level of funding diversification and short-term liquidity.

The Stable outlook assumes that the rating will most likely stay unchanged within the 12 to 18-month horizon.

A positive rating action may be prompted by:

- Increase in the creditworthiness of key member states while maintaining systemic importance for said member states.

A negative rating action may be prompted by:

- Decrease in the creditworthiness of key member states;
- Decrease in systemic importance for key member states;
- Deterioration in capital adequacy;
- Deterioration in liquidity and funding position.

The Stable outlook assumes that the rating will most likely stay unchanged within the 12 to 18-month horizon.

A negative rating action may be prompted by:

- Decrease in EDB's credit rating under the international scale.

Rating components under the international scale

SCA: a-

Adjustments: none.

Support: on par with the average weighted creditworthiness of member states and EDB's systemic importance for said states.
ACRA assigns A- to Eurasian Development Bank, outlook Stable, under the international scale, AAA(RU), outlook Stable, under the national scale for the Russian Federation, affirms AAA(RU) to bond issues (RU000A0ZZRR6), (RU000A1004X4), (RU000A100JC1) and assigns AAA(RU) to bond issue (RU000A100US4)

Issue ratings

Eurasian Development Bank Exchange-traded bond Series 001P-02 (RU000A0ZZRR6), maturity: May 7, 2021, issue volume: RUB 5 bln — AAA(RU).

Eurasian Development Bank Exchange-traded bond Series 001P-03 (RU000A1004X4), maturity: March 9, 2021, issue volume: RUB 5 bln — AAA(RU).

Eurasian Development Bank Exchange-traded bond Series 001P-04 (RU000A100JC1), maturity: January 10, 2023, issue volume: RUB 5 bln — AAA(RU).

Eurasian Development Bank Exchange-traded bond Series 002P-01 (RU000A100US4), with previously assigned expected rating of eAAA(RU), maturity: November 29, 2019, issue volume: RUB 2 bln — AAA(RU).

Rationale. The credit ratings of bond issues series 001P-02 (RU000A0ZZRR6), 001P-03 (RU000A1004X4), 001P-04 (RU000A100JC1), and 002P-01 (RU000A100US4) correspond with the credit rating of the Issuer.

The bonds listed above are senior unsecured debt instruments of EDB. Due to the absence of either structural or contractual subordination of the issues, ACRA ranks the bonds as equal to other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations of EDB.

Regulatory disclosure

The credit rating was assigned to Eurasian Development Bank under the international scale based on the Methodology for Assigning Credit Ratings on the International Scale to International Financial Institutions and Other Supranational Development Institutions. The credit ratings were assigned to Eurasian Development Bank and bonds issued by Eurasian Development Bank (RU000A0ZZRR6, RU000A1004X4, RU000A100JC1, RU000A100US4) under the national scale for the Russian Federation based on Methodology for Mapping Credit Ratings Assigned on ACRA’s International Scale to Credit Ratings Assigned on ACRA’s National Scale for the Russian Federation and the Key Concepts Used by Analytical Credit Rating Agency within the Scope of Its Rating Activities. In the course of assigning credit ratings to the bond issues above, the Methodology for Assigning Credit Ratings to Individual Issues of Financial Instruments under the National Scale of the Russian Federation was also used.

Credit ratings under the international scale and the national scale for the Russian Federation have been assigned to Eurasian Development Bank for the first time. The credit ratings assigned under the national scale for the Russian Federation to bond issues series 001P-02 (RU000A0ZZRR6), series 001P-03 (RU000A1004X4), series 001P-04 (RU000A100JC1), were published by ACRA for the first time on November 8, 2018, March 11, 2019 and July 16, 2019, respectively. The credit rating has been assigned to series 002P-01 (RU000A100US4) bond for the first time. The credit rating and credit rating outlook for Eurasian Development Bank, and the credit ratings of the bond issues listed above are expected to be revised within 182 days following the publication date of this press release as per the Calendar of planned sovereign credit rating revisions and publications.

The credit ratings are based on the data provided by Eurasian Development Bank, information from publicly available sources, and ACRA’s own databases. The rating analysis was conducted using IFRS reporting of Eurasian Development Bank. The credit ratings are solicited, and Eurasian Development Bank participated in their assignment.

No material discrepancies between the provided information and the data officially disclosed by Eurasian Development Bank in its financial statements have been discovered.

ACRA provided additional services to Eurasian Development Bank. No conflicts of interest were discovered in the course of the credit rating assignment.
Disclosure of deviations from the approved methodologies. In assessing support from member states, ACRA did not assess the creditworthiness of those countries whose share in EDB’s paid-in capital is insignificant (a total of 1.04%), nor did it assess EDB’s systemic importance for said countries. These member states include the Republic of Belarus (0.99% of paid-in capital), the Republic of Tajikistan (0.03%), the Republic of Armenia (0.01%) and the Kyrgyz Republic (0.01%).
ACRA assigns A- to Eurasian Development Bank, outlook Stable, under the international scale, AAA(RU), outlook Stable, under the national scale for the Russian Federation, affirms AAA(RU) to bond issues (RU000A0ZRR6), (RU000A1004X4), (RU000A100JC1) and assigns AAA(RU) to bond issue (RU000A100US4)

September 30, 2019

(C) 2019
Analytical Credit Rating Agency (Joint-Stock Company), ACRA (JSC)
75, Sadovnicheskaya embankment, Moscow, Russia
www.acra-ratings.com

Analytical Credit Rating Agency (ACRA) was founded in 2015, with its 27 shareholders representing major Russian corporate and financial institutions and its authorized capital exceeding RUB 3 bn. ACRA’s main objective is to provide the Russian financial market with high-quality rating products. Methodologies and internal documents of ACRA are developed in compliance with the Russian legislation and with regard to global rating industry best practices.

The provided information, including, without limitation, credit and non-credit ratings, rating assessment factors, detailed credit analysis results, methodologies, models, forecasts, analytical reviews and materials, as well as other information placed on the ACRA website (further referred to as Information), coupled with the ACRA website software and other applications, are intended for information purposes only. Information must not be modified, reproduced or distributed by any means, in any way or form, either in whole, or in part, in marketing materials, as part of public relations events, in news bulletins, in commercial materials or reports without a prior written consent from, and reference to, ACRA. ACRA does not provide advisory services. ACRA may provide additional services, if this does no

ACRA shall not be obliged to update, modify or supplement Information or inform anyone about such actions, unless the latter was recorded separately

The assigned credit and non-credit ratings reflect all material information pertaining to a rated entity and known by ACRA (including the information received from third parties), the quality and reliability of which ACRA considers appropriate. ACRA shall not be responsible for the accuracy of information provided by clients or relevant third parties. ACRA does not audit or otherwise verify the provided data and shall not be held responsible for their accuracy and completeness. ACRA conducts rating analysis of information provided by customers using its own methodologies, with the texts thereof available on ACRA’s website – www.acra-ratings.com/criteria.

No credit rating and/or credit rating outlook is regulated by the Central Bank of the Russian Federation, unless distributed so that such credit rating and/or credit rating outlook is in the public domain.

The only source that reflects the latest Information, including the one about credit and non-credit ratings assigned by ACRA, is ACRA’s official website – www.acra-ratings.com. Information is provided on an “as is” basis.

Information shall be considered by users exclusively as ACRA’s statement of opinion and must not be regarded as advice, recommendation or suggestion to buy, hold or sell securities or other financial instruments of any kind, nor shall it be viewed as an offer or advertisement.

Neither ACRA, nor its employees and persons affiliated with ACRA (further referred to as the ACRA Parties) provide any direct or implied guarantee expressed in any form or by any means regarding the accuracy, timeliness, completeness or applicability of Information for making investment and other decisions. ACRA does not act as a fiduciary, auditor, investment or financial advisor. Information must be regarded solely as one of the factors affecting an investment decision or any other decision taken by any person who uses ACRA’s information. It is essential that each of such persons conduct their own research and evaluation of a financial market participant, as well as an issuer and its debt obligations, and assigns

ACRA Parties shall not be responsible for any action taken by users based on Information provided by ACRA. ACRA Parties shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect or consequential damages or losses resulting from interpretations, conclusions, recommendations and other actions taken by third parties and directly or indirectly connected with such information.

Information provided by ACRA is valid only as of the date of preparation and publication of materials and may be amended by ACRA in the future. ACRA shall not be obliged to update, modify or supplement Information or inform anyone about such actions, unless the latter was recorded separately in a written agreement or is required by the legislation of the Russian Federation.

ACRA does not provide advisory services. ACRA may provide additional services, if this does not create a conflict of interest with rating activities.

ACRA and its employees take all reasonable measures to protect all confidential and/or material non-public information in their possession from fraud, theft, unlawful use or inadvertent disclosure. ACRA provides protection of confidential information obtained in the course of its business activities as required by the legislation of the Russian Federation.