Journal of Eurasian Economic Integration

The Journal of Eurasian Economic Integration is a quarterly academic and analytical journal published in Russian by the Eurasian Development Bank. The members of the Editorial Board and Advisory Council are distinguished academicians, practitioners and renowned experts in regional integration. Eurasian Economic Integration brings together academic and analytical articles, reviews of books relating to regional integration, interviews and quarterly chronicles of regional integration. With its focus on economics, the journal is a rich source of material addressing a broad range of issues specific to Eurasian integration. These include integration theory and its relevance to the development context; economic integration (trade, investment, financial institutions); institutional integration; cooperation issues in the post-Soviet space; and international experience of regional integration. The first issue was published in the third quarter of 2008.

Requirements for submissions. Papers should be sent by e-mail to editor@eabr.org for blind review. There are no strict limitations on the length of articles. However, the editorial board recommends authors to adhere to 6000-8000 words or 30000-40000 characters. In addition to the main text, authors must submit a brief author(s’) biography (100-150 words), executive summary (100-150 words) and bibliography. These materials must be attached in a separate file.
