Notes on the Contributors

Anna Abalkina – Candidate of Economic Sciences, Associate of the Academy of Finance under the Government of Russian Federation, Senior Researcher at the Institute of Economics of the Russian Academy of Sciences. Areas of research covers interaction in the banking sphere in the CIS, analysis of impact of foreign bank capital on national economy, regional financial integration world-wide. Anna Abalkina is a winner of a number of contests, including 2008 laureate of the program “The Best Economist of Russian Academy of Sciences” and winner of the grant contest of the President of Russian Federation in support of young Russian scientists – Candidates of Sciences and their academic supervisors.

Mikhail Golovnin – Deputy Head of the Centre for Problems of Globalisation and Integration of the Institute of Economy, Russian Academy of Sciences. Candidate of science in Economics. In 2000 he graduated Master School of Economic Faculty of Moscow State University (economic and social policy). In 2003 he received candidate of science degree for his thesis “Monetary Sphere in Transition Economies (Comparing the Experience of Russia and Central and Eastern European Countries)”. He is the author of more than 50 publications, including papers in the leading Russian economic journals (Voprosy Ekonomiki, Mirovaya Ekonomika i Mezhdunarodnye Otnosheniy, Problemy Prognozirovaniya, Obshestvo i Ekonomika, etc.) Scope of research interests – monetary and financial integration, monetary policy, financial globalisation.

Aleksandr Libman – Senior Researcher at the Institute of Economics of the Russian Academy of Sciences; doctoral student of the University of Mannheim; Associate of the Centre of Russian Studies of the East China University; Candidate of Economic Sciences. Graduated from the Financial Academy of the Government of the Russian Federation; undertook postgraduate studies at the Institute of International Economic and Political Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences; and a two-year study course at the University of Marburg. Published two monographs and some 200 other works in Europe-Asia Studies, European Journal of Comparative Economics, Social Sciences, Voprosy ekonomiki, Obschestvennyie nauki i sovremennost, Prikladnaya ekonometrika, Mirovaya ekonomika i mezhdunarodnye otnosheniy, Obschestvo i ekonomika, Rossiiisky zhurnal menedzhmenta, Svobodnaya mysl’, etc.
Natalia Maqsimchook – MSc Business Studies, Aston Business School, UK. Senior Analyst at the EDB Strategy and Research Department. More than ten years of experience in the UN system. She has contributed to various publications on the issues of good governance, regional development, and external aid coordination.

Ivan Samson – Professor of economics and social sciences at UPMF Grenoble University, Director of the Research Institute Espace Europe. Honoured Doctor of KAZEU University, Almaty. Published more than 150 books and papers. Expert in transition economics, regional economics, development economics and institutional economics. Director of large EU technical assistance contracts (TACIS, Meda) and policy advisor at national level in Russia, Georgia, Kazakhstan and Ukraine. Researcher and advisor in regional planning in Russia (Kaliningrad), Algeria, Morocco, Venezuela and Western Africa. Director of RECEP, Moscow, in 2000–2002, he advised the Russian Government and the EU on the content of the Common European Economic Space between Russia and EU.

Yury Shishkov – Doctor of Economic Sciences; Professor; Senior Researcher at the Institute of the World Economy and International Relations of the Russian Academy of Sciences; specialist in regional integration, globalisation and international industrial co-operation; author of nine monographs, 20 brochures and 360 articles published in various scientific magazines. Honoured Scientist of the Russian Federation, winner of the Varga Prize of the Russian Academy of Sciences.

Leonid Vardomskiy – graduated from the Faculty of Geography of the Moscow State University. Candidate of Geographic Sciences (1973). Doctor of Economic Sciences (1998). From 1987 to 2005 worked at the Institute of International Economic and Political Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences; since 2005 works at the Institute of Economics of the Russian Academy of Sciences. Head of the Centre of Comparative Studies of Transformation Processes. His area of interests includes regional processes and politics in transitional economies; integration processes in the world and post-Soviet space; trans-border cooperation; and economic development of the border regions of Russia and neighbouring countries. Published some 200 works.